I.V. Therapy Education Program

Instructor Biography

Kay Coulter, CRNI, VA-BC is executive director of Infusion Knowledge, Inc., a comprehensive intravenous therapy (I.V.) education and consulting organization that provides education, precepting and consulting on infusion therapy for all levels of healthcare providers, institutions and organizations. Kay is also a contract instructor for the Continuing Nursing Education Department at St. Petersburg College in Clearwater, FL. She has over 35 years of experience related to the specialty practice of infusion therapy and I.V. therapy-related education and consulting. Kay developed this educational program in an effort to improve I.V. therapy practice, facilitate patient safety and increase the comfort level and confidence of nurses in managing I.V. therapy.